If you face any of these challenges, MEG CAN HELP

I'm in need of a coach to keep me on track and accountable with what I'm learning and how to apply it.

I'm not sure what actions to take and in what order to take them.

All I see is my profit margin going down and my payroll and expenses going up. My practice hasn't seen growth in a long time. I'm ready to expand but unsure where to start.

I'm not sure what exactly I should be measuring and what I should do with the values that will make a difference in my practice. I'm not sure when to hire or in what order I should be hiring to fill my staff positions.

I don't want to make mistakes in areas where I have limited to no knowledge or experience, such as getting funding, lease negotiations, credentialing and setting up billing processes.

STARTUP PRACTICES

We felt like it would be worth moving forward to really set up our business before we even opened - Brian and his team helped us in a lot of ways to be successful. If you're considering MEG for services in your practice, I would definitely go for it.

Dr. Nina Geromel, DPT

"Anyone who steps in our doors or joins our team knows where we're going and how to be efficient. I can't even imagine that without the structure that MEG provided us."

Alika Antone, DPT

EXISTING PRACTICES

We now have systems in place to follow the same rules and be more organized and efficient with our time - everybody is on the same page. Brian told us early on that we would see a 4x return on investment for the training, which was a pretty big statement, but, over the past year, we've seen that come true.

Josh Schenkel, DPT

"I was working IN the practice vs. ON the practice. From some of the things that MEG instilled in me, one of the biggest things that had an impact on my business was that I need to be the leader and CEO of my practice."

Jason Waz, PT

"I've been in business for 33 years as a small business and I really don't have any training in running a business. Being able to organize and run and lead a business has been so enriching - far beyond what I ever expected."

Bill Cioffredi, PT

Message from Brian Gallagher, PT Founder of MEG

"In 2003, I put my head in my hands and realized I'd pay anyone anything if they could come in here and show me how to do things right the first time. For too many of us owners, it's the lack of certainty that haunts us and forces us to choose to do nothing out of the fear of making a mistake. Well, now you can have confidence in MEG that we're here for the sole purpose of helping you to live your dream of successful practice ownership. All you need to know is exactly where you want to go and that you're big enough not to let time or money get in your way - then, you too can live the life of an owner that you've always dreamed."
